1 jQuery function is used to create a jQuery object by selecting elements from the DOM based on a given selector, while the jQuery object represents the collection of selected elements and provides methods for manipulating those elements.

2 $(document).ready(function(){

  $('div > h1').css('background-color', 'red');

 });

3 $(document).ready(function(){

    $('p').append('Yes')

})